GOOD LUCK OMENS

It's good luck if you first catch a glimpse of the new moon over your right shoulder. Especially if you instantly feel in your pocket and find money there, as your luck thereby will be prodigiously increased, but you must take care instantly to turn the money over in your pocket.

Carry the left-hind foot of a jackrabbit in your pocket and you will have good luck.

Finding a four-leaf clover will bring you good luck.

If the palm of your left hand itches you will soon collect an old account.

If you find a penny on the ground in the sunshine you will soon receive some unexpected money.

If you find a horseshoe you will have good luck.

If you are awakened by a singing bird you will be happy all day.

If you accidentally stumble on the way up-stairs your chances for good luck are good.

To put your clothes on wrong side out when you're in a hurry is good luck but it breaks the charm if you do not wear them that way.

If a spider spins down from the ceiling, toward you, he will bring good luck to you.

If a strange dog or cat comes to you and makes its home with you, it will bring you good luck; and a stray cat brings its owners good luck to you.

GOOD LUCK OMENS

A black cat, without a single white hair, is a witch that brings luck to the house. Keeping one is to insure the unmarried girls of the home plenty of sweethearts.

When you are on a journey, and see a squirrel run across the road in front of you, if he goes across to the right, you will have good luck.

If you are going to the mountains or lake for pleasure, the one who sees the mountains or lake first will have the best luck.

When you see a shooting star, if you can say ("money before the week's out") three times before it is lost to sight, you will have money before the week is out.

If you make a wish before breaking a wishbone, and you get the larger part of the bone you will get your wish.

If your right ear burns, somebody is saying good things about you.

Carry a large old-fashioned cent for a pocket piece. It will bring you good luck.

Say "God Bless Me," when you sneeze, as an invocation to good luck.

If a small spider is found on your clothes, don't kill it, because spiders bring the best of luck.

There's luck in odd numbers.

Wear an iron finger ring and all will be lucky.

Friday is a lucky day for all people born in February.

If a load of hay goes by, make a wish on it and your wish will be gratified. But the charm will surely be broken if; like Lot's wife, you should look back.

If you are a burglar be sure to carry a piece of coal for good luck.

Begin all things with your right foot first you will always walk into good luck.

The surest and best sign of all—the best luck is gained by hard work and common sense.
